

KERN LearnApp – LEARN LANGUAGES

INFO SHEET

KERN Training is using modern course materials including exercises at all levels in a digital format in an app. Customers benefit from access to their exercises on the move. The app is also designed to be very interactive.

- By setting up a personal profile, users receive a constant overview of their learning achievements and goals.
- Pronunciation can also be trained effectively with the audio function.
- In LiveMatch, users can compete against each other in a game to improve their English or German skills.
- Images for vocab – with associated images, new words can be internalised and memorised more easily.

The KERN LearnApp allows quick learning progress and is an ideal complement to classroom learning. With it, class participants can revise what they have already learnt and train their vocab whenever and wherever they like.

Your benefits at a glance:

- Flexible use of the app – accessible wherever you are
- Audio-supported learning: You can listen to words and practice saying them to train your pronunciation.
- Interactive learning: Challenge others to a match and test your language skills against each other.
- Short learning units that can be integrated easily into your workflow or everyday life.

Who is KERN LearnApp suitable for?

- For corporate clients, it is an innovative further training method which can be easily integrated in the workday due to its individual learning modules.
- For private clients, it's an additional, flexible form of language training alongside classroom learning.

Have we sparked your interest in the KERN LearnApp? Contact us – we'll be happy to give you further information on downloading the app.
